

Benefit Ride
Cassandra Paige Jones

6 Years Old

Sunday, Aug. 20, 2006
at the
Marine Corps League

200 South 9th Street, Richmond, IN

All Cyclists Welcome

Cassandra was diagnosed with Rhabdoid Sarcoma on April 14, 2005. She lives in the Richmond area and is a spunky, smart little girl. On Jan. 11, 2006 she had another biopsy done and now they think she was misdiagnosed. They now think that she has Choromas, a rare bone cancer, but they still aren't sure. She enjoys riding her bike, playing on the swing set and swimming. She loves Barbie's and coloring.

She is supposed to get surgery at Memorial Sloan Kettering in New York City. At first it was scheduled for June 14, 2006 but they cancelled. They called back with a date of July 10, 2006 but we sent them new Ct Scans and MRI so we are just waiting on confirmation for that date. She has a webpage that I update on her progress. It is www.caringbridge.org/in/cassandra
